Tussle

The Geckos gave many shots to Jacobe Quinata in the middle but held big hitters Mark Morales and Irvin White to only the occasional spike. Geckos took Game 1 but the Islanders dominated Game 2, briefly allowing the Geckos back into the match after Islanders led 24-17 before a key service error ended things for the Geckos.

Islanders' momentum continued in the third set and the Geckos started unwinding, but the calm Montejo kept getting good passes and finally connected on a string of demoralizing spikes from his main guns.

By the time the Islanders realized that off-speed shots and deep tips were the only way to score points against the Geckos' powerful block, it was too late. By the fourth set, the Geckos continued to ride the lightning while the Islanders kept looking to regroup until they ran out of time.

Aaron Apiag had two straight kills late in the fourth game and the Geckos had a shot at match point but an error gave service to the Islanders. After the Islanders dug an off-speed shot, the pass got too close to the net and Dela Rosa was ready with the exclamation point.

Next

The Geckos are set to face the undefeated Tiyan High School Titans, who defeated Okkodo High School Bulldogs in straight sets 25-17, 25-18, 25-21. The Titans have yet to drop a set all season.

JFK plays Okkodo for third place at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, followed by the GW-Tiyan title match. Both games will be played at Tiyan High.

prepared to step up to make sure our mission is continued forward with summer basketball for youth players," Guam Youth Basketball Association Founder Pacual Artero said in the release. "Although I am retiring from managing the annual league, I will help support in various ways, and look forward to seeing the youth clubs back in action!"

GBC President E.J. Calvo hopes that young players who participate in the league's games will be motivated to continue practicing their skills in the Guam National Basketball Program.

"It is our goal to connect with young players as well as coaches in our community as we focus on continued elevation of basketball in Guam for generations to come," Calvo said in the release. "GBC has been extremely active with camps and clinics for players as well as coaches, and plan to provide more opportunities for players from associated youth clubs."

Registration for the U8 and U10 teams are at $250 per team. U12, U14, U16 and U18 team registrations are at $350 per team. Those interested may register at www.guam.basketball.
